Statement of Claim

It is the claim of Brandy Bond Milwaukee resident of 840 W. Juneau # 23 Milwaukee WI, that Mike Poma, General manager of Applebee's violated Brandy Bond's constitutional rights of freedom of speech by calling the Milwaukee Police department and having her arrested for complaining after being abused by himself (Mike Poma) and his staff.

While dining at Applebee's located at 212 W. Wisconsin Ave. on April 21, 2016 at approximately 2:30 PM, Brandy Bond a regular customer and former employee of Applebee's, after questioning the hiring practices of Mike Poma. Was withheld a bowl of soup that was ordered accompanying a glass of wine. During this ordeal personal space was violated by Mr. Poma and Universal Companies security staff, Brandy Bond was verbally assaulted by an Applebee's waitress being called "a heifer" this chain of events of being served alcohol, withheld food, verbally assaulted, and physical intimidation caused Bond to have a Posttraumatic stress disorder Induced anxiety attack. That resulted in an arrest that damaged Brandy Bond 16th district Wisconsin State assembly legislative campaign, in the following days caused a full psychotic break that caused Brandy Bond to be hospitalized in a mental institution. It is the plaintiffs intent to prove that Mr. Poma has a history of being sexually inappropriate with Brandy Bond and other Applebee's staff members and customers. And that the unconstitutional arrest not only caused damage to Brandy Bond's Wisconsin State Assembly legislative campaign, is hindering the progress of Brandy Bond selling photography and showing visiting business prospects her art, hanging in the Shoppes of Grand Ave's Ayzha Fine Arts. The unfair treatment is also hindering business and network possibilities with the Newaukee networking firm which Bond has established a relationship with. The incident has defamed Brandy Bond's character, and has caused anxiety and post dramatic stress induce trauma when approached by any security guards. Brandy Bond seeks $17 million in damages; for lifetime damage to her political career, pain and suffering, deformation, and violation of constitutional rights.
